GOV. COX MAKES HIMSELF SOLID WITH THE LADIES

"You can never be too sure about the ladies."

It was remarked here yesterday during the visit of the Deirocratic nominee that "Jimmy Cox certainly knew how to play politics."

This was probably no more forcibly demonstrated than just following the arrival of the distinguished visitor at the Alhambra vesterday when the governor, instead of passing them by as did members of his party, stopped at the nouth of the entranceway at the north of the theatre and passed the time of the day with a group of Ogden women standing there.

Here's where the sentiment of the foregoing song comes in Probably the governor had it in mind and just naturally "played politics" to make himself solid. But then who wouldn't?

Do you think those women will vote for "Genial Jimmie" Cox?

REPUBLICANS SELECT DELEGATES TO NAME TICKET FOR COUNTY AT CONVENTION TO BE HELD SATURDAY

Large attendances featured the Republican primaries held last night in the city and county districts where 13th delegates were named to attend the Republican county convention, to be held Saturday morning at 10 o clock in the Orpheum theatre.

The primaries within the city were held at the city hall, county courthouse and in many ward meeting houses and amusement halls. Interest in the naming of delegates was at high pitch at all times and it was etimated that within the city more than 1000 persons attended.

At Saturday's convention the Republicans will choose their legislative and county ticket and spirited rivalry is expected to feature the sessions.
At noon today only a portion of the delegates selected in the county districts had been received at headquarters, but the city delegates were reported as complete. The list of delegates were reported as complete. The list of delegates follows:
